

Mystical Mind Training Program

Mystical Mind Training

Our online Mystical Mind Training (MMT) is an advanced mind-training program for those desiring to undo the ego completely. The whole program is on the Internet and takes two years to complete. The program involves dedicated relationships for support and inspiration. Spiritual texts, videos, music, audio files, and writings are woven together in a curriculum designed to heighten metaphysical understanding and transfer the training to everything that has been believed, without exception.

Ministerial Program

The MMT program can serve as a Ministerial Program for those who have a calling to be a minister with Living Church Ministries. There are additional requirements and structured time-frames involved with the Ministerial Program.

Ordination

A Licensed Minister has the option, after completing at least two years of practice in the ministry, of enrolling in additional Ministerial Training. This further training involves additional courses and practicums, as well as an examination, to qualify as an Ordained Minister. The ordination is given by the Senior Pastor of the church.

Details of the program

Purpose

MMT is being used by those who want a way to make the mystical teachings of Jesus Christ come alive in experience, and who desire an experiential way of healing in mind.

Who it is for

MMT is for miracle-workers, teachers of God, and students who have advanced in the curriculum of forgiveness, yet need additional structure, organization, coaching, counseling, Guidance, collaboration, and practice to experience a consistently peaceful state of mind.

Topics included in the program

Topics in the program include guidance, holy relationship, metaphysics, empathy, no private thoughts, trust and inspiration, the power of thought, special relationships, prayer, psychotherapy and teaching, discernment, mind-watching, enlightenment, forgiveness, and divine providence.

Pace of the studies

The participants determine how quickly they want to go through each training course. Some study up to six hours a day and others work more sporadically. Generally the two-year program involves 10-15 hours of participation per week.

Assignments

Assignments are woven throughout the program for the purpose of inner inquiry-taking the ideas inward to question limiting beliefs and to ensure a clear understanding of the teachings. Some assignments involve only prayer and contemplation, others involve discussion with your mind-training partner. Some assignments involve a written response.

Mind-training partner

A mind-training partner is a companion with whom you communicate as you go through the program. Your partner will support your continued progress and completion of each course.

Mentors

Mentors are support people who are available for you to connect with occasionally as you go through the program.

Weekend retreat

The MMT program includes an MMT weekend retreat, which can be selected from any of the scheduled weekend retreats with the Messengers of Peace. If you feel guided to enroll in the Ministerial Program, you can use your weekend retreat as the time for your licensing ceremony. Therefore, you will have your retreat weekend after completing the program and meeting the requirements for the licensing process.

Cost of the program

The cost of the program is 1800 USD per person (or 2000 USD with quarterly payments of 500 USD each). Partners who are married, or share the same finances, can join the program together for a total of 3000 USD.

What the cost includes

Gratitude from participants

I am overwhelmed with such immense gratitude for you David and all of the Messengers and the volunteers and everyone involved in everything you do. Thank you for demonstrating to me that this is possible. I have tears and tears and tears streaming down my cheeks.

I love MMT soooooo much. I am on it every day. It is always a perfect reflection of where I am in each moment and such a practical tool to help and encourage me to just keep trusting and taking the next step.

I am just so grateful for all the materials and resources that are available and all the gentle loving support that is always right here at my finger tips. Thank you a thousand times and a thousand more.

Much Love and Devotion,
Karla

I just felt called to tell you how much I love you and how grateful I am. The Mystical Mind Training is just so beautiful and keeps getting better every day. Every day it becomes clearer, watching the mind, trusting spirit, feeling the joy. Miracle after miracle occurs daily, more than daily, constantly. More and more our hearts open, more and more the truth is revealed.

The MMT program is so powerful and perfectly constructed. The Holy Spirit pours through, the love of Jesus pours through. Please share with Jason and Kirsten and all the Messengers what a superb job they have done. My mentor has been so helpful and beautiful. I thank God, I thank Jesus, I thank the Holy Spirit, and I thank you David for the awesome gifts you are bestowing.

In love,
Don
